Palm/Passion Sunday

WORD OF GOD FOR A SUNDAY:

As we enter into the holiest week of the church year, we come as followers of Jesus, the Master, and we raise our palm branches high to acclaim that Jesus Christ is our Lord and King. Let us surrender our hearts to the Lord that we too, may be willing to suffer, die, and to rise to eternal life with Jesus, the Son of God.

THE READINGS:

Isaiah 50:4-7

With the Lord God as my help, I will not be disgraced.

Philippians 2:6-11

Jesus emptied himself, becoming obedient to the point of death. God greatly exalted him and bestowed upon him the name of Jesus.

Luke 22:14-23:56

The Passion and death of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ is told. Two details about Jesus' passion that are unique to Luke concern two very important aspects of the Christian response to salvation: nonviolence and forgiveness.
