Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

WORD OF GOD FOR A SUNDAY:

Belief in resurrection was not widely accepted in the days of Jesus, especially by the Sadducees.

Jesus asserts that the God of Israel is the God of the living, not the dead. As Christians, our faith is rooted in the death and resurrection of our Savior. As we prepare to celebrate this Eucharist, let us turn our hearts to Jesus, our hope of eternal life.

THE READINGS:

2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14

The King of the world will raise us up to live again forever.

2 Thessalonians 2:16 – 3:6

The Lord Jesus Christ will strengthen us for every good word and deed.

Luke 20:27-38

Jesus tells the Sadducees that God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

Catholic Forum – Tune in to Catholic Forum each Sunday morning at 10:05 on AM 1150 WDEL or www.wdel.com. Next Sunday, November 14th, Catholic Youth Ministry's Patrick Donovan & Anthony Albence will discuss their recent Catholic Relief Services sponsored trip to Africa. Catholic Forum is a production of the Diocese of Wilmington's Office of Communications.

Vocations – God calls people in every day and age to serve as ministers to the Body of Christ through priesthood and religious life, so that "the word of the Lord might speed forward and be glorified." Where do you fit into God's plan? What steps are you taking to find out? If you think God might be calling you to the priesthood or to religious life, call Father Joe Cocucci, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations, at (302) 573-3113.

May They Seek Wisdom!

Resplendent and unfading is Wisdom, and she is readily perceived by those who love her, and found by those who seek her.

Wisdom 6:12

We pray that all those who have been elected to serve the country in public office may be seekers of wisdom. God bless them, our nation, our planet!
