Christ the King

WORD OF GOD FOR A SUNDAY:

As this church year draws to a close, we gather together to celebrate the everlasting kingship of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. To better prepare our hearts to celebrate these sacred mysteries, let us seek the Lord's pardon for our sins and the sins of all.

THE READINGS:

2 Samuel 5:1-3

David is anointed King of Israel.

Colossians 1:12-20

Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

IF YOU ARE KING OF THE JEWS SAVE YOURSELF. LK 23:35-43

Luke 23:35-43

As Jesus is nailed to the cross, he grants forgiveness to the repentant thief.

Catholic Forum – Tune in to Catholic Forum each Sunday morning at 10:05 on AM 1150 WDEL or www.wdel.com. Next Sunday, November 28th, tune in to hear Fr. Bill Cocco, Associate Pastor of St. John the Beloved Parish discuss Advent. Catholic Forum is a production of the Diocese of Wilmington's Office of Communications.

Vocations – Today's first reading reminds us that the Lord told King David "You shall shepherd my people." In every age God calls men to the priesthood to continue that work of shepherding. Might He be calling you? If you think so, contact Father Joe Cocucci, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations, at (302) 573-3113.

Remember Me!

*The thief crucified with Jesus said:
Jesus, remember me when you enter upon your reign.
Jesus replied:
I assure you that this day you will be with me in paradise.*

Somehow it is fitting that it was a thief and an outcast that Jesus allowed to call Him King. This man asked only to be remembered. Ask Jesus to remember you too today and at the hour of your death.
