Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

WORD OF GOD FOR A SUNDAY:

The message of today's Gospel is, "Wake up!" Life does pass us by. Doors do close. We are put on this earth not to "kill time" but to embrace this life and prepare to meet God face to face. Let us pray for the grace to be alert to the presence of God.

THE READINGS:

Wisdom 6:12-16 Wisdom is found by those who love her.

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 God, through Jesus, will raise up those who have fallen asleep.

Matthew 25:1-13

Let us take our place, dear brothers and sisters, at the school of the saints, who are the great interpreters of true Eucharistic piety. In them the theology of the Eucharist takes on all the splendor of a lived reality; it becomes "contagious" and, in a manner of speaking, it "warms our hearts." Above all, let us listen to Mary Most Holy, in whom the mystery of the Eucharist appears, more than in anyone else, as a mystery of light. Gazing upon Mary, we come to know the transforming power present in the Eucharist. In her we see the world renewed in love. Contemplating her, assumed body and soul into heaven, we see opening up before us those" new heavens" and that "new earth" which will appear at the second coming of Christ. Pope John Paul II Ecclesia de Eucharistia, 62

Vocations – Today's first reading reminds us that wisdom "is readily perceived by those who love her and found by those who seek her." God's wisdom for us includes our individual vocation, that unique plan God has for each of us to participate in His work. Like wisdom, God's call is "readily perceived" and "found" by those who put time and effort into discerning it. What steps are you taking to discern your vocation? Call or write Father Joe Cocucci, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113 or jcocucci@cdow.org).
