Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

WORD OF GOD FOR A SUNDAY:

Today's readings remind us of a gift we take for granted: the Eucharist. We come here so distracted, thinking about so many other things. For the next hour or so, let us give all of our concerns to God. Let us ask God to quiet our minds and help us prepare to receive the food that nourishes the soul.

THE READINGS:

1 Kings 19:4-8

Strengthened by that food, Elijah walked to the mountain of the Lord.

Ephesians 4:30-5:2

Live in love as Christ loved us.

John 6:41-51

Jesus is the living bread.

Vocations – In today's responsorial psalm we pray "I will bless the Lord at all times." Some bless the Lord through holy Matrimony and the raising of children; others do it through lives consecrated for ministry for the sake of the Kingdom. Have you ever felt attracted to religious life – to living in community with others like yourself, to making vows of poverty, chastity and obedience in order to be able to focus more closely on the Lord? If so, please call or write Fr. Joe Cocucci, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113; jcocucci@cdow.org).
