Feast of Ss. Peter and Paul

WORD OF GOD FOR A SUNDAY:

My friends, today we celebrate two great men and ancestors in the faith: St. Peter and St. Paul. Two men with different backgrounds, different temperaments and different gifts who sometimes disagreed with each other, but who were both always passionate in their dedication to Jesus and in proclaiming the Gospel. The examples of Sts. Peter and Paul can give us great hope when there is conflict within the church and also serve as models for those struggling to answer God's call.

READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK: Zechariah 9:9-10; Romans 8:9, 11-13; Matthew 11:25-30

THE YEAR OF ST. PAUL - Our Bishop has designated our parish as a pilgrimage parish. Please welcome anyone who might be at Mass whom you don't recognize and might be visiting and let them know they are always welcome here. Please consult the DIALOG for information on the Year of St. Paul and a list of indulgences obtainable on the bulletin board in the vestibule.

Thank you to the donor of the St. Paul banner; the person who fixed the front door and painted the railing; the person working on the side door; those who will serve; those who are helping with and coming to our parish picnic; for the donation of the flowers; to those who made the St. Paul's T-shirts; to those who helped in the liturgy; and to the person who recovered the confessional screen. Thank you to Deacon Dave DeGhetto and his wife, Cynthia.

Eternal rest grant to Edward M. Aigner, father of Rev. Edward Aigner, and all the souls of the faithful departed.

Vocations – God called St. Peter to preach the Good News of Jesus Christ to the Jewish people, while St. Paul was sent as an apostle to the Gentiles. As we celebrate them together today, it's good to ask how God might be calling each of us to preach the gospel. Might He be calling you to embark upon the road to priesthood or religious life? If you think so, please call or write Father Joe Cocucci, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113 or jcocucci@cdow.org).

Catholic Forum – Listen to Catholic Forum every Sunday morning at 10:05 a.m. on 1150 AM WDEL. Next Sunday, July 6th, tune in to hear an interview with Sr. Margaret Mahoney, Director of Planned Giving for the Diocese of Wilmington. Catholic Forum is a production of the Office of Communications of the Diocese of Wilmington.
