Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

WORD OF GOD FOR A SUNDAY: Jesus is the one true High Priest called by God to intervene in history and save God's people. His lesson is one of service and concern, as witnessed in his healing of Bartimaeus, the blind beggar.

READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK: Revelations 7:2-4, 9-14; 1 John 3:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12a

OFFERTORY COLLECTION	October 18, 2009	$1225.00
	World Mission Sunday	$ 310.00

The Sanctuary Candle is lit from 10/24 – 11/7 in memory of Wilbur Curlett by Judith Johnson.

The new boxed sets of offertory envelopes are in the last pew on the organ side ready to be picked up. If you are not currently using envelopes and would like to begin, please drop a note in the offertory basket and a set will be made available to you. Thank you.

Sanctuary Candle Memorials for the year 2010 are now being accepted. The Sanctuary Candle will be lit for two weeks in honor of a living person/family or in memory of a deceased person/family. Envelopes for this purpose are on the table in the vestibule. Please complete the front of the envelope and enclose the $10 donation for the 2-week period and drop it in to the collection basket.

Next Sunday at Mass we will remember our parishioners who died this past year. Their names are in the Book of the Beloved, along with Bishop Saltarelli's name. Please remember them in your prayers.

Vocations – According to the Letter to the Hebrews, a priest is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring, for he himself is beset by weakness. Do you know your weaknesses? Have you found your strength in the Lord? Are you willing to work with His grace to use even your weakness as a tool for His glory? If you believe God may be calling you to the priesthood, call or write Fr. Joe Cocucci, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113; jcocucci@cdow.org). And check out our new website: www.calledbytheLord.com.
