Sixth Sunday of Easter

WORD OF GOD FOR A SUNDAY – Brothers and sisters, Jesus reminds us that he will not leave us alone, but will send the Holy Spirit to comfort and guide us. In the first reading we hear about one of the first dissensions in the early church – a controversy that threatened to pull apart this young community. Instead, they held a council, prayed to the Holy Spirit, and resolved their differences. Let us pray for such wisdom today. As we remember our Baptism, let us also remember our Confirmation and pray again for the activity of the Holy Spirit in our lives.
