Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

WORD OF GOD FOR A SUNDAY – My friends, today's readings are about forgiveness. How do you react to that? The woman in today's Gospel wasn't bored with forgiveness. She was relieved and grateful, but that was because she knew she was a sinner. If we don't know that we need forgiveness, let us pray for that knowledge.

READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK: Zechariah 12: 10-11, 13:1; Galatians 3:26-29; Luke 9:18-24

OFFERTORY COLLECTION	June 6, 2010	$1167.00
	Rectory Roof	$1947.00

The Nine Masses for Father's Day will begin on Father's Day. Father's Day Spiritual Bouquet Cards are on the table in the vestibule.

Lectors for next weekend's Masses are: 5 p.m. – Charlie Gondek, 9 a.m. – Linda Michel.

The Sanctuary Candle is lit from June 5th – 19th in memory of Blanche & John Klimasewski by Charlie Gondek.

So we don't forget – our newspapers and television don't go back on past disasters as when they first happen. We need to keep praying for the people in Haiti, Chile, and all the other natural disaster victims, as well as those affected by the BP oil spill.

Thank you to the family who paid for the new Statue of St. Paul which has been erected at our cemetery on Cox Neck Road. Thank you to the persons who paid for the pedestal for the statue.

From Fr. Pollard - Thank you to all of you who have been of help to me during my stay with you. I also appreciate your kindness to me in having a farewell party as well as your comments and to those who helped me pack and move things to my house. My new address is: P O Box 185, Charlestown, MD 21914-0185. As St. Thomas More said "Pray for me as I will pray for you that we might joyfully meet in heaven".

I know that any time a new pastor comes you look at him and wonder what he is going to be like. I assure you that he is wondering what you are like also. I ask you as you have welcomed me into this parish, to please give Fr. Clem the same welcome and support.

God bless one and all.
Father Pollard

Catholic Youth Ministry - Sometimes we can allow ourselves to see Mass as a dull routine that we endure out of habit. Why not pump some life and meaning into Mass for your family by getting involved in the liturgy? Encourage your children to become altar servers, cantors, lectors. If they are hesitant, join them in the process and get involved together. The Diocesan Office for Catholic Youth Ministry offers training sessions specifically for young people who would like to become lectors.
