Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

PASTORALLY SPEAKING – This weekend we celebrate the Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time. Our scriptures remind us that all peoples are called to proclaim the praises of the Lord and confess His holy name. We are also called to do so in the midst of our own pain and suffering.

Please welcome Fr. William Melnick who will celebrate Mass this weekend and next weekend while I am away.

While I am on vacation St. Peter's Church in New Castle will cover our parish for emergencies.

Fr. Clem

WORD OF GOD FOR A SUNDAY – Most of us are more comfortable with people who are like us – people who look like us and speak our language. But in today's Gospel we hear that Jesus came for those who seem to be very different. And yet they are called to be disciples. Let us remember that as we worship here today, there are people in every village of every country, on every continent who are praying in every language. Let us join our voices to theirs as we pray.

READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK: Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29; Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a; Luke 14:1, 7-14

OFFERTORY COLLECTION August 15, 2010 $1240.00
Feast of the Assumption $ 264.00

Vocations - Today's psalm response exhorts us to "go out to all the world and tell the Good News." While that is the vocation of every baptized person, God calls some to do it through the priesthood or religious life. For two thousand years, countless women and men have dedicated their lives as sisters, brothers, deacons and priests. Is God calling you to join them? Call or write Fr. Joe Cocucci, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113, jcocucci@cdow.org). Be sure to visit our website: www.CalledByTheLord.com!
