Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

PASTORALLY SPEAKING – This weekend we celebrate the Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time. Jesus warns his disciples about the approaching persecution of the Church. Through their perseverance they will emerge victorious. Let us also be conscientious about fulfilling our daily obligations
Fr. Clem

READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK: 2 Samuel 5:1-3; Colossians 1:12-29; Luke 23:35-43

OFFERTORY COLLECTION November 7, 2010 $1386.00

Catholic Campaign for Human Development - The recent economic downturn has affected each of us, but for our hard-working neighbors who already live on the edge of poverty, it presents a numbing challenge. As Catholics, we are called to respond to those in need, but we also have a gospel mandate to break the cycle of poverty by helping to change the structures and conditions that cause it.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) helps poor and low- income people lift themselves out of poverty. Next week our parish community will participate in the collection for CCHD and by doing so responds to the Church's call to bring a lasting end to poverty across our nation.

Your support will help low-income people as they work together to solve community problems and address the issues impacting them and their families. CCHD is committed to helping people change the conditions that keep them living in a state of poverty. You can make a difference. Please give your generous support to CCHD in next week's second collection.
