Marriage and Family Life Corner from the Diocesan Office of Parish and Family Life - Sunday, January 16: Martin Luther King emphasized that our differences need not divide us. Think of a way that you and your spouse are different yet your traits complement each other. (Consider things like attention to detail vs. seeing the whole picture, quick thinker vs. thorough planner, extrovert vs. self-reflective...) Sunday, January 16: What are your bad habits? (Cell phone use in car, eating too much, drinking & driving, coarse language, smoking, junk food, not enough exercise, internet junkie) Your children are watching. If not for yourself, at least for them show them you're trying to break a bad habit. Even the effort is a message.

Vocations - In today's first reading, Isaiah speaks of the Lord "Who formed me as His servant from the womb." The Lord has formed each one of us from the womb; for each of us He has a plan. Could God's plan for you include religious life or holy orders? If you think so, let's talk. Call or write Father Joe Cocucci, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113 or jcocucci@cdow.org). Be sure to visit our website: www.CalledByTheLord.com!

2010 Tax Contributions – Anyone wishing to have a tax letter for their contributions for 2010 please complete this form and place it in the offertory basket. The letters will be available for your pickup the following weekend. They will be in a box marked "Tax Statements" in the last windowsill on the Blessed Mother Side. Please remember that the statement does not include Mass Stipends
