Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

PASTORALLY SPEAKING – This weekend we celebrate the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Our Scriptures remind us of God's loving providence. Our Gospel again proclaims Jesus as the Bread of Life. He strengthens us for our journey following His way of love.

Fr. Clem

OFFERTORY COLLECTION	August 5, 2012	$1093.00
	Air Conditioning	$ 399.00

Eucharistic Ministers for next weekend are: 5 p.m. – Charlie, Linda, & Susan; 9 a.m. – Diane, Marie, & Joe. Lectors for next weekend are: 5 p.m. – Susan; 9 a.m. - Deborah.

As the Diocese moves forward with the Bishop's Priorities, we also must recognize that the responsibility for healing continues. Next week's Dialog offers an interview with a Compliance Oversight Committee member sharing her views on the work of the Diocese and her hope for the future. The purpose of the Oversight Committee is to review the implementation process within parishes, schools and programs of the diocese for consistent and thorough compliance with the diocesan response to the Charter for the Protection of Children: For the Sake of God's Children. For additional information, visit the Communications' Corner website at www.dioceseofwilmington.steiergroup.net featuring a "Responsibility to Healing" section.

Vocations - In today's responsorial psalm we pray "I will bless the Lord at all times." Some bless the Lord through holy Matrimony and the raising of children; others do it through lives consecrated for ministry for the sake of the Kingdom. Have you ever felt attracted to religious life – to living in community with others like yourself, to making vows of poverty, chastity and obedience in order to be able to focus more closely on the Lord? If so, please call or write Fr. Joe Cocucci, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113; jcocucci@cdow.org). Be sure to visit our website: www.CalledByTheLord.com!

Listen to Catholic Forum every Sunday morning at 10:05 a.m. on 1150AM WDEL and www.wdel.com. Next Sunday, August 19th, Ms. Carol Ripken, interim principal of St. Mark's High School will be the guest. Follow Catholic Forum on Facebook at facebook.com/catholicforum.
