Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

OFFERTORY COLLECTION

Offertory

$ 1,423

This week, our 2nd collection will be for All Saints Day. Next week it will be for Utilities.

The weekly Mass from the Cathedral of Saint Peter in Wilmington will be live-streamed on Sunday mornings at 9:30. YouTube.com/DioceseOfWilm.

St. Paul's Parish is continuing to support The St Vincent de Paul Society with their Homeless Project. Please copy and paste the link below into a browser in order to read their message and a list of items that are needed in order to make things a little brighter for those less fortunate. You may also make a cash donation. Please mark it specifically for the "Homeless Project" and place in the Offertory Basket. http://www.stpaulsrcchurch.org/stpaulsrcrcc_documents.php

Offertory Envelopes for the year, beginning October 17, 2021, are now available to be picked up in the last pews on both sides of the church. If you wish to discontinue receiving envelopes please contact the office via email STPAULSDECITY@verizon.net or by calling 302-834-4321. Thank you.

For the health and safety of our congregation and local community, it is recommended that you wear a mask if you are not vaccinated or you think you may have been exposed to Covid-19. The recommendation is for age Kindergarten and above. Let us continue to be united in prayer for one another and for an end to the global pandemic.

Please consider participating in Birthright's annual Bottles for Babies Campaign, which is held in October for Respect Life Month. The empty baby bottles are in the vestibule and will be collected the weekend of November 21st. Since Birthright operates entirely on donations, they rely on Bottles for Babies to provide a large source of their income. Your generous support allows them to assist pregnant women with emotional and practical resources. In doing so, you share in their life-giving work. Thank you.
