Around Thanksgiving, we requested donations of hats, gloves, snack bars, protein shakes, and small packages of tissues or wet wipes – thank you to the many parishioners who have already responded. We are still accepting donations through the end of the year and you can place a donation under the statue of Saint Joseph. Thank you and May God Bless You during this holiday season.

Listen to Catholic Forum each week: Next Saturday, Next Saturday, January 27th, hear an interview with Scott Wilson, principal of Saints Peter and Paul High School in Easton, Maryland and learn about that terrific school and how they are planning to celebrate Catholic Schools Week.
